FR. BOB'S WEEKLY BLOG

Mass. We might even have grown a tad too selfish and impatient over the course of time.

During Lent, we're encouraged to pray, to fast, and to give alms. Doing these Lenten practices gets us out of ourselves and more focused on God and others. We want to rediscover the importance of the spiritual life and be reminded that despair has no place in the life of an intentional disciple of Christ.

Although the Alleluia disappears for Lent, we keep the Alleluia alive in our hearts because we are people of hope, and our hope is not in the wounded ways of the world, but in the Person of Jesus, the Christ. We are invited to lean more faithfully on the Paschal Mystery, which is Christ's suffering, death, resurrection, and ascension.

A wonderful recommendation for us all during Lent is to read the four gospels of the New Testament. Which one you start with doesn't matter. Pick one. When you are done with one, start another until you've read them. Don't just read them to get it over with. Slow down. Read reflectively. Pray along the way. If you doze off, that's ok. It means you needed some rest. Pick back up where you left off. Time with scripture is time with the Lord.

Health experts recommend an annual physical exam. We agree. Once a year we should see our doctor, and our doctor should see us. We have blood drawn and await the results. Our body temperature is checked as is our blood pressure. Vitals matter.

Well, Lent is time for a spiritual check-up. How are we doing? Are we spiritually healthy? Are we listening to the Divine Physician (Jesus) or have we allowed too many discouraging, despairing voices to drown out the voice of the Good Shepherd; he who knows us by name and summons us to follow him.

We should also consider taking a deep breath during Lent. A tendency during Lent is to add on more and more things to do; more things to get done. Lent becomes another "To Do" list on many "To Do" lists. Pause! Slow down! It's not about what we are doing but about what God is doing in us and through us, provided we let Him.

Pray. Reflect. Rest. Serve others in love. Participate faithfully in Holy Mass. Examine your conscience. Confess serious sin. Receive forgiveness. Live in grace. The fruit of all this is joy and peace of soul. We need not live in constant fear and fury. There's a better way; the Way of the Lord. Yes, there's a cross involved, but there's also the promise of resurrection. Thank God!

Quote -- "Lord, save us from gloomy saints." -- St. Teresa of Avila

An interesting word popped up on the scene sometime between the years 2018 and 2020. The word is doomscrolling. What is doomscrolling?

Doomscrolling describes the compulsive act of reading negative news online. Doomscrolling's counterpart is doomsurfing, which is overconsuming negative news via television or radio.

Whether we scroll or surf, the effects are spiritually, emotionally, socially, and psychologically concerning. An endless stream of how bad things are in the world chips away at the human spirit. We risk losing hope as we fall into despair. We begin to sound like Glum from Gulliver's Travels who use to say, "It's hopeless. We'll never make it. Never! We're done for."

Safe to say we wouldn't want Glum on our football team with the game on the line.

We've entered into the season of Lent. This is our penitential season. Lent is a time to get back to spiritual basics and regain perspective. Maybe we've grown a little slack in our prayer life. There's a chance we've excused ourselves from participating every week in Sunday

FR. KEVIN'S GREGORIAN RANTS

After clearly stating our faith in God the Father and God the Son, as well as defining their relationship and work in the world, we arrive at God the Holy Spirit. As the third person of the Trinity, he is usually the most overlooked and the most misunderstood. We know that it is through his work that the world continues to be sanctified.

Similar to the council fathers fighting against attacks on the person and natures of Jesus Christ, the Son, they needed to counter attacks on the reality of the Holy Spirit. Their main antagonists were a group called the Pneumatomachians, which means "fighters against the spirit" in Greek. They believed the Holy Spirit was a created being, not divine, which again sounds much like the beliefs of the Arians that the Son was created and not equal to the Father.

Why was this so important to the council fathers? The Holy Spirit had been revealed multiple times in the scriptures as equal to the Father and the Son, and it had been part of the Church's teaching since the day of Pentecost. While the person of the Holy Spirit was not as under attack as the person of Christ, they still needed to provide an understanding of who the Holy Spirit is and what he does in and for the Church.

You may have heard various complicated terms for the Holy Spirit's relation to the Father and the Son, such as active and passive spiration, procession, and mutual indwelling. The terms themselves aren't as important as the reality they describe. The Father and the Son are perfectly united and a fruit of this union is the Holy Spirit, much like a child being the fruit of the union of man and woman. The Holy Spirit is the shared gift, both given and received, by the Father and Son.

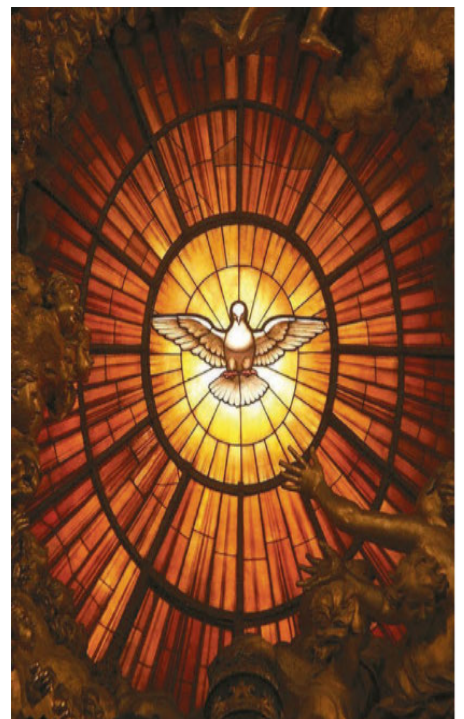

The visible mission of the Holy Spirit comes from this nature of shared gift is that of continual sanctification. This is how we symbolize the Holy Spirit by the dove, tongues of fire, breath, wind, and a cloud. This does not mean that the Father and the Son aren't also sanctifying, but their visible mission is something else. In fact, the visible mission of the Son in redeeming humanity culminates in mission of Spirit, which then returns us to the Father through the Son.

The relations and missions of the Trinity are revealed to us; we wouldn't be able to deduce them on our own. The missions show us the inner workings of the relations in the Trinity as best they can. These eternal relations break into salvation history as God acts in a Trinitarian manner. In their missions, the persons of the Trinity work through some created effect that make the relations present in a new way in the time and space created by God.

Salvation history thus brings about a new creation and gives the Christian life of grace a Trinitarian structure. The missions, in which one Trinitarian person is sent from another, mirror the real relations within the Trinity, which communicates and reveals them. While God is truly omnipresent and does not change, in these missions he manifests himself in a new manner; the Son is sent and the Holy Spirit descends to make themselves known to man in history.

We call the Holy Spirit "the Lord" and "the giver of life". The title Lord is used to show his equal status with the other persons of the Trinity. As the giver of life both spiritual and physical, the Holy Spirit does many things for man. He is there to create the soul in a child at the moment of conception. He is there in the sacraments to bestow and restore divine life within men. He was there at the beginning of time, hovering over the waters to bring life and order out of chaos, breathing existence into Adam after he was formed from the clay. It's this same Spirit who continues to proclaim the Gospel in the world, bringing new life to those trapped by the snares of sin and death.

Eighty students from our Faith Formation Program and from St. Symphorosa School will be Confirmed by the Most Reverend, Bishop Bartosic, Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago. The students have worked very hard at preparing for this special day and we ask that you remember them, their sponsors, and parents in your prayers. Practice for this sacrament will take place at St. Rene Church on Wednesday, March 12th at 6:00pm. And another practice will take place on Thursday, March 13th at 6:00pm. The Confirmation Candidate and Sponsor need to attend the practice in which they were assigned. If, for some important reason, the Sponsor is unable to attend, the student must be accompanied by a parent.

Our Faith Formation students invite all of our parishioners to participate in our Lenten Outreach project. All levels will be donating Children's Easter Basket items for the local shelters and agencies we service. Donations can be brought to our Faith Formation classes, to the Main Parish Office on Austin Ave. or dropped off in the Narthex when attending Mass. Please note, we can always use empty Easter Baskets and the cellophane bags to wrap the baskets, after we fill them. For more information, feel free to call the Faith Formation Office. God be with you and your dear families as we journey through this Holy Season of Lent. Our 2025 Confirmandi are invited to take part in assembling the Easter Baskets and earn service hours for their upcoming Confirmation.

On Sunday, February 23rd about 65 Confirmation Candidates from our Faith formation Program gathered for their Confirmation Day retreat. This special day was filled with activities that were prayerful, reflective, and at the same time fun! Thank you to the parents and families for helping to make this year's retreat an awesome experience by providing wonderful letters of support to the students. A Big Thank you to Ms. Lilia Izguerra, Ms. Sonja Darmstaedter, Ms. Diana Ramirez-Cortes and Ms. Paula Escamilla, our dedicated Catechists for volunteering their time and talents!
