FR. KEVIN'S GREGORIAN RANTS

The invisible, yet still very real, world created by God is often the subject of deep interest by movie writers, grade school kids, and others who are fascinated by a reality beyond their own. Given their rarity, people are captivated by tales of demons, angels, and exorcisms. I'd like to dive further into the concept of spiritual warfare.

I do not say this to terrify anyone, but Satan, demons, and demonic attack is a real thing. There is a spiritual battle that is being fought. The reason it shouldn't scare us is that we know the battle is already won for one side – that of the Trinitarian God and the Church. This means it's a matter of uniting ourselves to that winning side and knowing that, even though the final battle is over, the small fights for souls are still ongoing.

It's important to remember that God did not create Satan and the fallen angels. Evil itself is a "no-thing"; it is merely the lack of a good that should exist instead. Rather, Satan exists because of free will, the same free will that can be employed by men to choose to divorce ourselves from God. Initially, the demons were created as good by God, powerful creatures who served and praised the Lord. They are in no way equal to God, but they do possess higher intellects and wills than human beings.

At some point, the angel Lucifer rebelled, along with many other angels, because he could not accept God's plan for fallen humanity. We hear in the book of Revelation of a great battle in heaven, with St. Michael leading God's armies against Satan and his followers. Michael's name means "Who is like God?", making him the perfect general to fight against the one who aimed to make himself equal with God.

As an act of constant vengeance against God, Satan, whose name means "the Accuser", desires to convince men to choose like he did and make themselves equal to God and be creatures who do not need divine assistance. He and his demons, from the Greek word diabolos, meaning "the divider", strive to twist reality and spread lies. They remain creatures, unable to create, but instead using tactics of suggestion and corruption to convince men that sin is something good. C.S. Lewis' "The Screwtape Letters" give an excellent depiction of the strategies the evil ones use to persuade men to rid themselves of reliance on God or any other relationships.

The key to spiritual warfare is not a denial of its existence as something made up by the Church to scare people into being good, but in placing confidence and trust that one is on that winning side. If I stay within the Church and refuse to allow the enemy to put things in between God and I, then I remain safe. This isn't to say I will be exempt from temptation and will never sin, but that I will always see the path back to God.

It is not just the demons who exist, but also the choirs of angels. They fight constantly on the side of God's chosen ones, those who are baptized and seek to follow Jesus Christ as the way, the truth, and the life. They fight for truth, beauty, and goodness, refusing to cede to any power or temptation of evil.

There are certainly great tools and weapons to use in the spiritual battle. The Rosary, holy water, scapulars, holy medals, crucifixes, and a whole slew of prayers will always be useful. We are not, however, superstitious. The best way to fight against evil and for goodness is to remain in the heart of the Church, use the name of Jesus, and live a sacramental life. One confession is greater than a thousand exorcisms. If we focus too much on battling the darkness, we can be drawn into a pit of paranoia that demons are lurking around every corner.

As committed Christians, we are on the winning side, make no doubt about it. With the Trinity, the holy angels, the communion of saints, and the holy Catholic Church, we fight as children of the light and of the King. We pray daily, we resist temptation, we pursue virtue, and we take up our crosses. Nothing could be more devastating to Satan and his minions.

OUR SANCTUARY CANDLES

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

On Christmas Eve at the 4:00pm Mass at St. Symphorosa and at the 6:00pm Mass at St. Rene, we will present a Christmas Pageant for our community here at Two Holy Martyrs Parish. This performance gives our children the opportunity to celebrate Jesus' Birthday. As part of the celebration, we have the students re-enact the Christmas Story..... (in a simple way) Allowing them to experience firsthand the true meaning of Christmas.

Please email Miss Peg if you would like to participate. Thank You!
msiebenaler@archchicago.org

JESUS IS THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

At Baptism, we are all given a lighted candle.
This reminds us to live as followers of Jesus,
The Light of the World. Our Faith Formation students are invited to construct their own lighthouses with their families. Look for their beautiful creations which will be on display in the narthex at both our worship sites in December.
May these lighthouses serve as a reminder, for us to be
Shining Lights, In Today's World.

A PRAYER TO NURTURE A FORGIVING FAMILY

Lord, give us a home overflowing with love,
A family that is quick to forgive and seek forgiveness.
A family that laughs and prays and heals together,
A family that values others more than self,
Reconciliation more than pride,
and God's grace more than anything else.
Amen.

CHRISTMAS CARDS FOR SOLDIERS

In the true spirit of Advent and Christmas, Two Holy Martyrs Parish will again be remembering our U.S. veterans and soldiers this holiday season. Please participate in this out-reach project by making cards for our veterans at Hines Hospital in Maywood and our soldiers stationed overseas, thanking them for their sacrifice and service.
If you have a few moments, help us in this endeavor by spreading some Christmas joy this holiday season. All cards can be turned-in at class or at our Main Parish office...by, Dec. 15th. Thank you for your efforts in making this holiday a little brighter for our American soldiers.
